Editorial Review

Review

In Our Midst is a beautiful, moving book. It is an ideal first book about the Holocaust, for students who have never encountered the subject before, but it is also a book that those well-familiar with the Holocaust should read, for it preserves documents and photographs of immense historical importance. The story of how the Holocaust touched one American community, it is a model of how the Holocaust should be preserved by every American Community. -- Jonathan D. Sarna, Joseph H. & Belle R. Brawn Professor of American Jewish History, Brandeis University
