Renee Fleming: The Inner Voice, Notes from a Life Onstage By Renee Fleming

Globally famous opera star Renee Fleming has been described as the "best soprano in the world" by Andre Previn and "the biggest selling soprano in the world" by the head of Universal Classics. More than an entertaining autobiography about the inner workings of the classical world, her memoir is also an inspirational look at what it takes to be successful as a singer and as such will be uniquely valuable to the thousands of young people who aspire to these heights. In a series of wonderfully personal anecdotes she shares her experiences of working with famous orchestras and temperamental conductors as well as movingly describing her early battles with stage fright.
