A Long Time Coming (Perfect Timing) (Volume 2) By Heather Van Fleet

Abigail Orson has a problem. A love problem to be precise; and she has absolutely no idea how to go about fixing it. For years now, she has been chasing her best friend's brother—demanding things from him that he's never wanted to give. For one? A real relationship that surpasses well beyond that dreaded 'just friends' zone. You see, David Anderson is her idea of perfection to a T. The one and only guy who has ever had the ability to make her heart beat faster; make her toes curl with the simple blink of his long, girly lashes. But David is also a recovering amputee, and the only thing he really wants from Abigail is to be left alone. Abigail is a fighter though, and losing the one guy who has ruined her for every other is no longer an option. A guy with one leg who has lost his motivation to live—to love—to actually be a man. David believes he's a waste of space. If only the beautiful girl of his unattainable dreams would get that through her perfect, blonde, stubborn head! He's not the right guy for Abigail. He'll never be worthy of what she deserves. However, staying away is almost impossible, especially when he's just as in love with her as she is with him. But Abigail has a life ahead of her, one that's definitely livable without a nineteen-year-old gimp like him holding her down. What makes her want to stick around is beyond questionable to David's mind. Choices will be made. Lines will be drawn. And together, they will face challenges that nobody saw coming. David and Abigail may have had almost fourteen years to fall in love, but the thing is, timing and love have never exactly worked in their favor. It has been years in the making, and definitely A Long Time Coming for David and Abigail. Let's hope they don't screw it up before they actually have the chance to get it right...
