Mitos de la historia mexicana (Spanish Edition) By Alejandro Rosas

La historia oficial impidio que los mexicanos conocieramos nuestro pasado con todos sus matices; nos presento personajes perfectos e infalibles que enfrentaban a terribles y despiadados enemigos; caudillosque hablaban por el pueblo contra villanos que lo enganaban.En blanco y negro, esa fue la historia que nos contaron.La presente obra derrumba por completo la historia oficial, acabando con los mitos que permearon la conciencia de la sociedad. A traves de sus paginas encontraremos a un Hidalgo que ordenaba matanzas de espanoles, a un Juarez que nunca se vio como indio; a un Madero que designo ministros a sus familiares, o a todos esos jefes revolucionarios: Villa, Zapata, Carranza, Obregon y Calles, que terminaron enfrascados en una terrible lucha por el poder, asesinandose unos a otros.Escrito de una manera clara y amena, Mitos de la historia mexicana es una invitacion a redescubrir el pasado mexicano, para no dejarlo de lado en la construccion del futuro.
